Description:

If it were not for Holy Week and Easter the story of Jesus would not be told today. The services of Lent, Holy Week and Easter present a significant challenge to the worship leader, tasked with guiding worshipers along the journey to the cross and beyond. In this Learning Unit participants will explore theological themes such as brokenness & healing, death & resurrection, the passion & paschal mystery. We will review liturgical resources for Lenten practices, Palm/Passion Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter and Eastertide. This Unit will also focus on crafting public prayer.

Please note:

- Two programs, one weekend: an Orientation Event (Feb.28-Mar.1) will be held immediately prior to this Learning Unit = an opportunity to complete two Certificate requirements in one weekend. To register for the Orientation: www.tatacentre.ca
- This is one of four Learning Units offered in the Licensed Lay Worship Leaders Program (Atlantic). Units can be taken in any order.
- Those who are currently licensed and those seeking to be licensed as Licensed Lay Worship Leaders are welcome and encouraged to participate.
- Those who complete the Orientation and 4 Learning Units will receive a Certificate of Completion from Tatamagouche Centre and LLWL Atlantic.

The Instructors for Learning Unit 2: *Wilderness and Wonder

Rev. Dr. Andrew O'Neill Since completing his PhD at the University of Edinburgh, Andy has been in full-time pastoral ministry in New Brunswick. He is also sessional faculty at Atlantic School of Theology in the fields of theology, ethics, liturgy and pastoral ministry, and a regular contributor to journals and publications in these fields.

Rev. Robyn Brown-Hewitt Robyn is the United Church Campus Minister at the Multifaith Centre of Dalhousie University. Her background includes degrees in theatre, theology and narrative therapy.
