TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR REGIONAL COUNCILS¹

C.1 Membership

The regional council consists of members of the order of ministry, other ministry personnel, lay members of the United Church, and leaders of associate member ministries, all as set out in sections C.1.1 to C.1.3 below.

“Ministry personnel” is a general term that refers to members of the order of ministry, designated lay ministers, candidates serving under appointment, diaconal supply, and ordained supply. For more information on these categories of ministry personnel, see Entering Ministry H.1.1 and H.1.2.

There must be a balance between the members in the membership categories in section C.1.1 and C.1.2 below where possible.

C.1.1 Members of the Order of Ministry and Other Ministry Personnel

The following ministry personnel are members of the regional council:

- a) members of the order of ministry within the bounds served by the regional council; and
- b) other ministry personnel in a covenantal relationship with a community of faith within the bounds of the regional council.

C.1.2 Lay Members

Communities of faith that are congregations or pastoral charges continue to elect representatives to the regional council in the same way they elected representatives to the presbytery prior to January 1, 2019. They may also change the way in which they elect representatives within denominational policies, with the agreement of the regional council, and by including it in the covenant between the community of faith and regional council.

The lay members of the regional council are members of the United Church who are not ministry personnel and who are

- a) elected by communities of faith on the following basis:
 - i) one representative from each community of faith with 100 or fewer members;
 - ii) two representatives from each community of faith with 101 to 200 members;
 - iii) three representatives from each community of faith with 201 to 300

¹ Taken from the United Church of Canada The Manual. Where The Manual of the United Church of Canada and this governance manual conflict, The Manual takes precedence. The governance document is intended to be a living document.

- members;
- iv) four representatives from each community of faith with more than 300 resident members; and
- b) additional lay members as determined by the regional council if necessary to respect a balance of ministry personnel and lay members who are not ministry personnel in the membership of the regional council.

C.1.3 Leaders of Associate Member Ministries

The regional council includes people in formal ministry leadership in those communities of faith of other denominations

- a) that have been granted associate membership in the United Church based on policies set by the Executive of the General Council; and |
- b) that are located within the bounds of the regional council.

A community of faith of another denomination may be granted associate membership in the United Church based on policies set by the Executive of the General Council.

C.1.4 Corresponding Members

The regional council may include corresponding members as determined by the regional council.

C.1.5 Regional Council Roll

The Board of Vocation is responsible for

- a) assigning each ministry personnel to a regional council for membership purposes;
- b) informing each regional council of the ministry personnel who are members of that regional council; and
- c) informing each regional council of any changes in its ministry personnel membership.

The regional council is responsible for keeping a roll of all its members and corresponding members.

C.2 Responsibilities

C.2.1 Covenanting

The regional council is responsible for

- a) recognizing a new community of faith by entering into a covenantal relationship with it;

- b) living in a covenantal relationship with each community of faith, with mutual responsibilities for the life and mission of the community of faith, and fulfilling its responsibilities under the covenant;
- c) approving changes to the covenantal relationship with the community of faith from time to time, including structural changes, amalgamations, realignments, and disbanding of communities of faith; and

The regional council's responsibilities in the life cycle of a community of faith that is a congregation or pastoral charge are set out in more detail in Congregational Life G.1.

- d) living in a covenantal relationship with ministry personnel.

C.2.2 Services for Communities of Faith

The regional council is responsible for

- a) providing support, advice, and services to communities of faith in human resource matters;
- b) providing support, advice, and services to communities of faith in dealing with congregational property;
- c) managing regional archives;
- d) providing ongoing leadership training for ministry personnel and lay people; and
- e) providing funding partnerships with United Church educational and leadership training centres and camps as determined by the regional council.

C.2.3 Service, Support, and Oversight of Communities of Faith

The regional council is responsible for

- a) reviewing the self-assessments of communities of faith in light of the covenant between the community of faith and the regional council;
- b) supporting emerging new ministries;
- c) supporting communities of faith in their life and work;
- d) promoting articulation of mission and ministry;
- e) ensuring compliance with the policies and polity of the United Church and reviewing any relevant records;

The "polity" of the United Church means the form of organization and government of the United Church as it is set out in these bylaws.

- f) hearing appeals from communities of faith and their governing bodies; and
- g) assuming control of a community of faith in extraordinary circumstances where the community of faith is unable to or refuses to meet its responsibilities or acts outside of denominational policies.

C.2.4 Purpose

The regional council is responsible for encouraging and engaging in

- a) joining our collective hearts, voices, and resources to witness to the gospel and vision of Jesus for a compassionate and just society, both in Canada and around the world;
- b) local, regional, national, and global initiatives and partnerships (community, ecumenical, and interfaith) for ministry, mission, and justice work;
- c) ministry with children, youth, and young adults;
- d) honouring and living into intercultural mission and ministry; and

Honouring and living into intercultural mission and ministry is described in Vision for Becoming an Intercultural Church, a resource available from the General Council Office.

- e) living in covenant with Mother Earth and All My Relations in the Earth community.

C.2.5 Policy and Finance

The regional council is responsible for

- a) administering policy set by the General Council, and setting appropriate regional policy;
- b) participating in determining priorities for mission and ministry work through the Mission & Service fund; and
- c) setting and managing its annual budget, including revenue from the denominational assessment, and setting any additional regional assessment for any additional services the regional council wishes to undertake.

C.2.6 Property

The regional council is responsible for

- a) co-operating with the community of faith in buying, selling, leasing, and renovating community of faith property, and distributing any proceeds within denominational policies and guidelines, including
 - i) making decisions on requests from communities of faith to buy, sell, mortgage, exchange, renovate, lease, or otherwise deal with community of faith property;

The regional council makes decisions relating to the property of amalgamating congregations. See Congregational Life G.1.4.5.

- ii) making decisions on the meaning of the terms “other major assets” and “major renovations” for that regional council;

The terms “other major assets” and “major renovations” are explained in Congregational Life G.2.1.2 and G.2.1.3.

- iii) communicating the meanings of those terms to each community of faith within the bounds served by the regional council; and

There are three exceptions to the regional council’s responsibility for making decisions about the property of communities of faith that are congregations. They are set out in Congregational Life G.2.2.2, G.2.2.3, and G.2.2.4.

- b) making decisions on the property of communities of faith remaining after the communities of faith cease to exist; and
- c) buying, selling, leasing, and renovating regional property, and distributing any proceeds within denominational guidelines.

C.2.7 Preparation for Ministry

The regional council is responsible for

- a) celebrating the approval of applicants for candidacy;
- b) ordaining and commissioning members of the order of ministry;
- c) recognizing designated lay ministers;
- d) licensing licensed lay worship leaders; and
- e) celebrating admissions and readmissions.

C.2.8 Pastoral Relations

The regional council is responsible for co-operating with communities of faith in

- a) recruiting, choosing, calling, appointing, and covenanting with ministry personnel and communities of faith;
- b) ending calls, appointments, and covenants with ministry personnel and other staff; and
- c) appointing a regional council liaison officer to assist a community of faith in pastoral relations matters at designated times.

For more information on the regional council liaison officer, see Pastoral Relations I.1.5.

C.2.9 Licence to Administer the Sacraments

The regional council is responsible for granting a licence to administer the sacraments to diaconal ministers, designated lay ministers, people who retired while serving as designated lay ministers, and sacrament elders, as set out in Pastoral Relations I.2.4.

C.2.10 Celebrating Retirements

The regional council is responsible for celebrating the retirements of ministry personnel.

C.2.11 Ministry Personnel

The regional council is responsible for

- a) encouraging and supporting ministry personnel toward health, joy, and excellence in ministry practice; and
- b) assisting with informal conflict resolution processes.

C.2.12 Participation in Denominational Life

The regional council is responsible for

- a) electing members to serve on General Council based on the following:
 - i) Number: it elects five members plus an additional number allocated to it based on the proportion of communities of faith within the bounds of that regional council to the total number of communities of faith in the United Church;
 - ii) Lay/ministry personnel balance: a minimum of 1/3 of the members elected must be ministry personnel on the roll of the regional council and a minimum of 1/3 of the members elected must be lay members of communities of faith within the bounds of the regional council who are not ministry personnel;
 - iii) Diversity: attention is given to diversity of gender and age, racial and cultural identities, and sexual expressions, as provided in policies set by the General Council;
 - iv) Timing: the election takes place, where possible, at least one year before the next regular in-person meeting of the General Council;
 - v) Eligibility of ministry personnel: the ministry personnel who are elected must be members of the regional council that elected them both at the time of the election and at the time that the General Council holds its next regular in-person meeting;

- vi) Eligibility of lay members: the lay members who are elected must be members of a community of faith within the bounds of the regional council both at the time of the election and at the time that the General Council holds its next regular in-person meeting;
- vii) Method of election: the regional council is responsible for deciding how to elect its representatives to the General Council; and
- viii) Alternates: it must also elect a number of alternate representatives;

The General Council holds an in-person meeting every third year. See General Council D.3.1.

- b) naming a leading Elder or presiding officer of the regional council to serve as a member of the General Council;

The regional council has the flexibility to determine its own officers, except that there must be a leading Elder or presiding officer to fill this role.

- c) receiving, dealing with, and forwarding proposals from members of the community of faith to the General Council; and
- d) promoting and fostering direct dialogue between communities of faith and the General Council.

C.2.13 Incorporated Ministries

The regional council is responsible for

- a) deciding whether to approve applications to incorporate ministries that will carry on activities in the region;
- b) serving, supporting, and providing oversight of the incorporated ministries that carry on activities in the region; and
- c) serving, supporting, and providing oversight, if assigned by the General Council, of incorporated ministries that carry on activities in more than one region.

C.2.14 Limitations

All responsibility of the regional council is subject to

- a) policies set by the General Council on membership, governance, pastoral relations, candidacy, ministry personnel, property, and any other area within the authority of the General Council; and
- b) the authority of the General Council to assume control of the regional council in extraordinary circumstances where the regional council is unable to or refuses to meet its responsibilities or acts outside of denominational or regional council policies.

C.3 Organization

C.3.1 Executive

C.3.1.1 Appointment

The regional council is responsible for appointing an executive to do the continuing work of the regional council when the regional council is not meeting.

C.3.1.2 Membership

The executive must consist, to the extent possible, of a balance of ministry personnel and lay members who are not ministry personnel.

C.3.1.3 Responsibilities

The executive has all of the responsibilities of the regional council, unless the regional council has decided otherwise.

C.3.1.4 Reporting

The executive must report its actions to the regional council for information and for inclusion in the minutes of the regional council.

C.3.2 Committees and Other Bodies

The regional council may fulfill its responsibilities with the help of officers, committees, task groups, steering groups, teams, and other bodies, as determined by the regional council. The regional council must designate a member to fill the role of the leading Elder or presiding officer under section D.1.1 d).

C.3.3 Commission

C.3.3.1 Acting by Commission

The regional council or its executive may appoint one or more United Church members as a commission

- a) to take on a specific responsibility for the regional council or its executive; and
- b) to make decisions on behalf of the regional council or its executive.

C.3.3.2 Decision Is Non-debatable

A commission's decision is as effective as a decision of the regional council or executive that appointed it. The regional council or its executive may not debate a commission's decision and come to a different decision.

The same right of appeal is available for a commission's decision as for a decision made by the regional council or its executive. See Oversight, Conflict Resolution, and Discipline J.10.2 and J.10.3.

C.3.3.3 Reporting

The commission is responsible for reporting its decisions to the body that appointed it. The decisions must be included in the minutes of that body.

C.3.4 Staffing

The regional council has staff to assist it in meeting its responsibilities based on the following:

- a) staffing numbers are based on assessments, grants from the United Church Mission & Service fund, and any other regional income;
- b) staffing is based on priorities and needs as determined by the regional council;
- c) each regional council has a secretary as the senior staff and administrative officer of the regional council
 - i) who reports to the General Secretary of the General Council and relates to the regional council executive;

The General Secretary of the General Council is the senior staff and administrative officer of the General Council, its Executive and Sub-Executive. See General Council D.4.2.

- ii) who may serve more than one regional council; and
 - iii) whose responsibilities include the hiring and managing of other regional council staff;
- d) regional councils with more resources are free to retain more staff; and
- e) sharing of all resources across the church is encouraged.

C.4 Meetings

C.4.1 Annual Meeting Requirement

The regional council must meet at least annually.

The annual meeting may be a meeting of the entire regional council or the executive of the regional council, as determined by the regional council.

C.4.2 Meetings: General

The regional council must decide

- a) whether and, if so, how often it will meet regularly between annual meetings as the entire regional council or the executive;
- b) the time and place for the annual and other regular meetings, and the procedure for calling annual and other regular meetings; and
- c) how it will hold special meetings for urgent business between regular meetings.

C.4.3 Minimum Number of Members at Meetings

The regional council may meet only if a minimum number of members is present. For meetings of either the regional council or its executive,

- a) if there are fewer than 60 members, at least 1/3 of them must be present;
- b) if there are 60 or more members, at least 20 members must be present; and
- c) there must be at least one ministry personnel and one lay member who is not ministry personnel present.

Corresponding members are not counted for this purpose.

Fundy St. Lawrence Dawning Waters Regional Council
